

Dr Deepak Desor

Bio

Dr Desor graduated from St Georges Hospital Medical School in 1983 and worked in a number of hospital specialities as part of their GP training. They became a Partner at Hershams Surgery in Walton-on-Thames in 1988.

They were also involved in teaching medical students, became a member of the Local Medical Committee, and a Surrey PCT GP Assessor.

Dr Desor retired from the Practice in 2020 and continues to work as a GP Locum. They completed a Masters in Medical Law at Glasgow University in 2001 and has since been working as a GP Expert Witness for over 24 years.

Dr Desor received instructions from both Claimant's and Defendant's Solicitors, and has also acted as an Expert at Coroner's Inquests.